Doshisha University (Kyoto)

Doshisha University as an Attractive International Base of Knowledge
- in Kyoto, the Ancient Capital of 1000 Years -

University Overview

University Characteristics
Kyoto, where Doshisha University is located, is in the central part of the island of Honshu (500km from Tokyo). The beautiful city was the capital of Japan and the residence of the Emperor for over a thousand years, from 794 until the Meiji Restoration in 1868 when the capital was moved to Tokyo. Also known as the cultural heart of Japan, with temples, shrines and traditional wooden houses, the cultural and historical heritages attract many tourists from all over the world. The city is also home to the headquarters of world famous companies leading Japanese industries, such as Nintendo and Kyocera.

The Vision of Joseph Hardy Neesima
Doshisha’s founding spirit consists of three main principles: Christianity, Liberalism and Internationalism. Doshisha was founded by Joseph Hardy Neesima in 1875 as the first Japanese school advocating the teaching of Christianity. He founded the school to make it a place for young people from all parts of the world to seek truth, pursue knowledge and independence, and nurture lifelong friendship. Doshisha highly values the presence of international students as they bring international viewpoints and diversity to the campus and thereby enrich the university culture. We are eager to welcome and support international students.

International Exchange
& Number of Foreign Students
Doshisha University has grown to be one of the major universities in Japan, with 14 Faculties, 16 Graduate Schools, and Center for Japanese Language and Culture (CJLC). Nearly 30,000 students are currently enrolled at Doshisha, including over 1500 international students from around the world.

CJLC is in charge of various affairs related to our “international inbound programs”, from acceptance of international students to educational support with a rich variety of Japanese language and cultural subjects, daily life support, and short-term programs.

Experiencing Japanese culture in the heart of Kyoto
The Center for Japanese Language and Culture is located on the Imadegawa Campus just to the north of the Kyoto Imperial Palace in the heart of Kyoto. Lecture courses in Japanese Studies and International Studies offer experience-based classes including Flower arrangement, Tea ceremony, Calligraphy, Zazen meditation, Gold leaf craftwork, and visits to festivals, temples and museums. These classes enable students to understand the nature of Japanese traditional culture by virtue of our great location in the ancient capital Kyoto, with a history and tradition of 1200 years.

Communication with Japanese Students
Students are entitled to use the same facilities as regular students. The “International Community Lounge” offers students excellent opportunities to deepen friendships with local students.
The “Learning Commons”, the newly established self-learning Facility equipped with a Japanese/English writing center, provides a positive environment where international and local students can get to know each other.

Getting involved with a Club or student group is one of the best ways to meet local students with the same interests.
http://d-live.info/

Also, there are a Variety of international exchange events on campus.
http://www.doshisha.ac.jp/en/international/communication/event.html

1. International Day
This informal event serves as an excellent medium for international exchange between students.

2. SIED
SIED (Student Staff for Intercultural Events at Doshisha) is a student organization. SIED has a mission to establish international exchanges between local students and international students at Doshisha University.

Accommodations
We will provide accommodations to the Japanese studies students. In a dorm, students can easily make friends, exchange information on school life and Japanese life, and feel at home.
Entrance fee and monthly rent will be required, but neither guarantor nor other initial costs such as agent charge, security deposit, key money etc. are needed if living in a dorm.

Follow - up
After completion of their Japanese studies at Doshisha, many students continue to be involved in Japan, such as going on to graduate school, becoming a Japanese teacher, and finding a job at a Japanese company. Our faculty members have continuous interaction with Japanese studies alumni and have been receiving reports of various activities where the alumni members participate actively, e.g. participating in the local alumni association of Doshisha as an interpreter.
